Home to approximately 255,000 people, Lafayette, LA serves as an economic center in south Louisiana. Southern Business and Development named Lafayette a Top 10 place in the South for the creative class citing Lafayette's entrepreneurial culture, risk-taking spirit and technological advantages. Area Development's "100 Leading Locations" named Lafayette one of the best cities in the nation for economic and job growth. With a well-trained workforce, unmatched quality of life, and a favorable environment for our business community, Lafayette is a place like no other.

Location

The intersection of Interstates 10 and 49, coupled with air service via Lafayette Regional Airport, serves as a strategic advantage in transportation and accessibility in and out of the parish.

Living

Lafayette serves as a hospitable, safe and family-friendly center for retail, education, services and health care. Lafayette Utilities System (LUS) provides the City of Lafayette and some surrounding areas with electric, water, and wastewater services that are among the lowest priced in the state. LFT Fiber, the telecommunications division of LUS, provides some of the fastest internet in the world to customers with speeds up to 25 Gbps.

Working

Lafayette's diverse business base promotes a stable economy that encourages additional development and investment. Business opportunities and employment advantages extend through the fields of construction, manufacturing, healthcare, transportation and distribution, energy, retail trade, finance, and information technology.

Playing

The region's legendary joie de vivre and Cajun and Creole culture are known around the globe, creating a unique environment for work and play. Local museums, community events, and festivals provide modern-day arts and culture with a southern flair. The subtropical climate of the "Sportsman's Paradise" is enjoyable in nearly 40 parks and recreational facilities around Lafayette Parish.

LIVING

Cost of Living

The Council for Community and Economic Research, a non-profit organization promoting excellence in research for community and economic development, developed the Cost of Living Index to provide a useful and reasonably accurate measure of living cost differences among urban areas. The Index measures differences in the cost of consumer goods and services for professional and managerial households in the top income quintile.

The Index average is equal to 100 and each participant's index is read as a percentage of the average. For example: Lafayette's composite index is 86.6— 13.4% below the national average. These percentages are based on the cost of 50+ items.

How would the Cost of Living Index be useful to you?

Suppose you live in Houston, TX, which has a composite index of 98.2 and you are thinking about accepting a new job in Lafayette, LA, which has a composite index of 97.9. How much of an increase or decrease in your after-taxes income will you need to maintain your present lifestyle?

$$100 * [(86.6 - 91.4) / 91.4] = -5.25\%$$

Your after-taxes income could decrease by 5.25% and still maintain your present lifestyle. Keep in mind, this index does not take taxes into account.

The following graphs will show how Lafayette's cost of living compares to other cities in the South.

Composite Index

The composite index indicates the average cost of living for each urban area. It is based on the following six components—Grocery Items, Housing, Utilities, Transportation, Health Care and Miscellaneous Goods & Services.

WORKING

Major Industries in Lafayette Parish

Lafayette Parish serves as a diverse business base for prominent leaders in many industries.

Construction: New concepts in residential development, combined with improvements made by local government, the University, and private business has propelled the construction industry forward in commercial activity. In 2025, construction activity reached more than $421 million.

Retail Trade/Leisure & Hospitality/Entertainment: More than 20% of retail spending in Lafayette Parish is made by shoppers who live outside of the Parish's borders. People from across the Acadiana region travel here for shopping, entertainment, recreation, dining, professional services and business. The population in Lafayette's trade market is more than 600,000 people; and more than one million tourists visit this area every year.

Finance: The financial industry within the Lafayette market is comprised of 43 locally-owned and nationally-operated banking institutions, with an estimated $15.2 billion in deposits as of July 2026. They provide services ranging from simple savings and checking accounts to complex commercial investments. There are eleven active credit unions within the Parish, with estimated total assets more than $534 million in July 2026.

Manufacturing: The innovation of local manufacturers has resulted in the transformation of traditionally low-technology industries into modern high-tech environments through state-of-the-art computers, intelligent manufacturing systems, robotics, and automation. Thriving manufacturing businesses in Lafayette can be found across sectors including jewelry, oil and gas, marine, food production, and specialty metals.

Medical/Healthcare: At the heart of Lafayette's medical industry, is cutting edge communication and data transfer thanks to the area's high speed fiber optic network. Lafayette MSA's evolving medical workforce of more than 33,000 employees continues to expand with growing facilities. As the "Hub City" of the region, Lafayette is further cementing its role as a regional health center—attracting specialized treatment centers, and along with them preeminent physicians, researchers and scientists.

Energy: With hundreds oil-and-gas-related businesses in Lafayette, the region is the hub for energy production and services in the southeastern U.S. and the Gulf of Mexico. Our community provides an industry-savvy environment and a workforce that is highly skilled, making Lafayette very attractive—not only to energy companies, but to companies across industries. Local businesses are positioning themselves at the forefront of the energy transition and the next wave of energy innovation.

Technology: Lafayette has worked hard to create a business climate attractive to technology-intensive industries with technology infrastructure, skilled workers, research institutions, and economic development incentives. Within two years, four companies announced the creation of more than 1,100 technology jobs in Lafayette, cementing the region's reputation as a technology hub in the South.

Transportation/Distribution: Located at the crossroads of Interstates 10 and 49, Lafayette's strategic location has contributed to the viability of the transportation/distribution industry. Cargo can be delivered via the Intracoastal Waterway; and the proximity of Lafayette to the Gulf of Mexico makes deliveries and exports by sea feasible.

Aviation: Propelled by offshore transportation companies since the 1970s, Lafayette has emerged as a thriving hub for value-add for the aviation and aerospace industries through a cluster of MROs, manufacturers and pilot training.
