

SKILL UP FOR ECONOMIC RESILIENCE

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES FOR A BETTER FUTURE

The Skill Up initiative is designed to enhance economic opportunities for citizens across Lafayette and Acadiana while simultaneously boosting our region's economic resilience through essential skilled trades occupations.

Would you like to pursue a career in industrial maintenance? South Louisiana Community College's (SoLAcc) 15-week Industrial Maintenance Technician program prepares students through classroom instruction and practical experience needed to install, repair, and maintain industrial equipment and machinery such as: electrical systems, motors, pumps, production machinery, PLC controls, machining, pneumatics & hydraulics, robotics, and solar/wind systems.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

You'll learn how to install, repair and maintain commercial or industrial machinery in buildings, plants, or manufacturing settings.

The curriculum includes course work in:

- Measurement
- Programmable Logic Controls
- Robotics
- Hydraulics
- Pneumatics
- Mechanics
- Electricity
- Sensors
- Basic milling and lathe

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Graduates may work in a variety of industries including:

- food processing
- aerospace
- maritime manufacturing
- biomedical manufacturing
- defense
- space
- packaging and assembly

Average annual salary:

$55,570

2022 Louisiana Average Salaries, Bureau of Labor Statistics

WHEN/WHERE

New Iberia - 15 weeks: Starts in September 2024 (day class)

COST

Tuition: $5,000

Financial aid may be available for qualifying students.

REQUIREMENTS

16+ years of age

No High School, GED or HiSET required*

*A high school or HiSET diploma is required for most financial aid grant applications.

Contact us today to learn more!
337-593-1400 | www.lafayette.org/skillup

A partnership between:

The EDA logo is a trademark of the Economic Development Administration, used with permission.